Mike W. Peng

Provost's Distinguished Professor of Global Strategy
University of Texas at Dallas

Professor Peng is interested in developing a community of management scholars on a global basis. He has worked with numerous colleagues and PhD students, who are not only based in the United States, but also in Australia, Britain, China, Canada, Denmark, Hong Kong, Singapore, South Korea, and Taiwan.

Some of his coauthors are some of the best minds in our field, such as Dave Ahlstrom, Jay Barney, Rabi Bhagat, Garry Bruton, Sea-Jin Chang, Chao Chen, Andrew Delios, Greg Dess, Saul Estrin, Igor Filatotchev, Charles Hill, Bob Hoskisson, Steve Globberman, Yuan Li, Yadong Luo, Klaus Meyer, Ram Mudambi, Jeff Reuer, Daniel Shapiro, Oded Shenkar, Justin Tan, and Mike Wright. Many other coauthors are PhD students and junior faculty members.

Professor Peng also has the unusual distinction of working with three deans—Dean Daniel Shapiro at Simon Fraser University, Dean Yuan Li at Shanghai Jiaotong University (and formerly dean at Xi'an Jiaotong University), and Dean Xinchun Li at Sun Yat-sen University. Considering how busy deans are and how rare it is for deans to remain research active, there must be a reason for these deans to choose to work with Professor Peng.

In all his collaborations, Professor Peng has always endeavored to foster a spirit in search of scholarly excellence—a relentless pursuit of academic excellence resembling the spirit of the Olympics.¹
